PFIC Annual Information Statement

PFIC Information

IMPORTANT TAX NOTICE TO U.S. SHAREHOLDERS WHO ARE U.S. TAXPAYERS

This statement is provided for the benefit of Shareholders in the Company who are United States persons for purposes of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and the Treasury Regulations thereunder ("U.S. Shareholders"). United States persons include U.S. citizens (whether or not they are U.S. residents), certain individuals with U.S. permanent resident status, U.S. corporations, U.S. partnerships and certain U.S. trusts and estates. Shareholders in the Company should consult with their own U.S. tax professionals to determine whether they are United States persons.

The Company believes that it was a Passive Foreign Investment Company ("PFIC") as defined in Code Section 1297(a) for its U.S. tax year ended December 31, 2022.

The attached PFIC Annual Information Statement is being provided pursuant to the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1295-1(g)(1). The PFIC Annual Information Statement contains information to enable you, should you so choose based on the advice of your own tax advisors in light of your personal tax circumstances, to elect to treat the Company as a qualified electing fund ("QEF") for its U.S. tax year ended December 31, 2022. U.S. Shareholders are generally required to report QEF elections for PFICs having tax years that end during or on the same date as their own U.S. tax year. Once a QEF election is made, the election is generally effective for the election year and all subsequent taxable years of a U.S. Shareholder unless invalidated, terminated or revoked in accordance with the Treasury Regulations.

A U.S. Shareholder who makes a QEF election is required to annually include in his or her income his or her pro-rata share of the ordinary earnings and net capital gain of the Company, whether or not that Company distributes any amounts to its shareholders.

The QEF election is made on Form 8621 ("Information Return by a Shareholder of a Passive Foreign Investment Company or Qualified Electing Fund") on or before the due date, including extensions, for the income tax return of the U.S. Shareholder with respect to the first tax year to which the election relates. If the Company is classified as a PFIC, U.S. Shareholders will be required to report their holdings in the Company on Form 8621 whether or not they make the QEF election. Where a United States person is an investor in a company that holds shares of the Company in its portfolio, that person is an indirect investor in the lower-tier Company shares and will be required to file a separate Form 8621 report for the lower-tier Company shares. The attached information is designed to enable an investor to make a QEF election for both directly held top-tier and indirectly held lower-tier shares.

Further information on PFIC rules and the QEF election is available from the Internal Revenue Service, including the following website: <https://www.irs.gov/instructions/i8621>

Important information:

This information is provided in order to assist Shareholders in making calculations and does not constitute tax advice. The U.S. tax laws regarding PFICs are extremely complex, and Shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisors concerning the overall tax consequences of their respective investment in, and ownership of units of, the shares under United States federal, state, local and foreign law. This material is for informational purposes only. This material is not research, investment, legal or tax advice, and is not an implied or express recommendation, offer or solicitation to buy or sell any security or to adopt any particular investment or portfolio strategy. Any views and opinions expressed do not take into account the particular investment objectives, needs, restrictions and circumstances of a specific investor and, thus, should not be used as the basis of any specific investment decision. Please consult your own financial and/or tax advisor for financial and/or tax information applicable to your specific situation.
